Spicing it up

Investors are worried about higher costs for spice maker McCormick. Everything from cinnamon and pepper to packaging is costing it more, and the company is hiking prices for the second time in a year to compensate.

Customers stocked their cupboards with seasonings last quarter in advance of McCormick's price increases. So analysts say sales may dip this quarter; yet many suggest sticking with the stock. McCormick pays a $1.12 dividend, which eases the wait for a sales recovery, Jefferies analysts say. McCormick also is introducing products, such as reduced-sodium seasoning mixes, that will help drive new demand, says Janney Capital Markets. The weak economy has more consumers eating at home and using spices.
